

Seanamhac Tube Station (Viola)

Jig

John Carty

The image displays a musical score for the piece "Seanamhac Tube Station" for Viola. The score is written in 3/8 time and consists of six staves of music. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various rhythmic values, slurs, and fingerings. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 0, 1, 2, 3 above the notes. The score begins with a repeat sign and ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The music is a jig, characterized by its 3/8 time signature and lively, rhythmic patterns.

Pronounced "Shanawock" Seanamhac is a small village in County Galway Ireland. The title is meant as a joke as an underground railway is nowhere to be found in such a remote Irish village. Kevin Burke plays this tune on "Over the Black River". This is a pentatonic tune and has no semitone intervals. In this Key of F major, this jig is unique as it only uses the second and third fingers. The first finger is not used.
